

Unprecedented approach to the figure

If you love the figure and enjoy a challenge, these master classes are for you. During each session, you will learn to observe and render the figure in a more creative and exciting way than ever before. Past participants have called this class an “exhilarating event” and “the most useful, informative figure class ever.”

Richard Harden, an extraordinary and passionate instructor, will show you new ways to express the figure in your art.

Using both anatomical and expressive approaches, you will develop a personal style for dependable and fluent handling of the figure — no matter what skill level you are.

A Dramatic Approach to the Human Figure

March & April Classes
Time: 9:30 to 5:00

Choose Collinsville or Coventry Location

You will learn to:

- Tackle composition and foreshortening dilemmas
- Increase the expression in your work by using distortion and caricature
- Explore the possibilities of advanced charcoal handling
- Experiment with a variety of media
- Strengthen your observation skills
- Increase your proficiency in handling of tone and mass

Full day of art-making

Your full-day class begins with enlightening lecture, a light snack and warm-up drawing exercises. The rest of the day you will focus on the short and long pose, working with charcoal, graphite or ink. The cost for these one-of-a-kind classes is $75 each, and this includes the model fee.

Learn from the best

Seize this opportunity to study with Richard Harden, a dynamic instructor and practicing artist known for his experimental and innovative approach to the figure. Daily demonstrations, powerful lectures and individual guidance are hallmarks of Richard's teaching style. Richard's own work is in collections around the world, including the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Vatican.
